

CENTRAL POWERS CONCENTRATE FORCES IN EAST WHERE FIGHTING ON HUGE SCALE IS IN PROGRESS

DEADLOCK BLOCKS EFFORTS

Business Men Make Little Progress in Effort to Avert Sympathy Strike in New York.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

New York, September 20. — Despite the attempted intervention of a committee of business men, there seemed to be little prospect today of averting a general strike in sympathy with the street railway employees.

Labor leaders aver that the proposed general walk out will involve about 700,000 workers in all trades. A second conference of the business men with the Mayor and chairman of the Public Service Commission was called today, but it was the feeling of the most directly concerned that the situation had reached a complete deadlock.

RIOTING AT NIGHT

Attempt to Operate Surface Cars Brings on Violence.

New York, September 20. — The attempt to operate surface cars last night resulted in the worst rioting since the strike began, but officials of the transit company say the service in the day time is improving steadily. Throughout the night elevated and subway trains, where they run on elevated structures, were bombarded with bottles and bricks, car windows being shattered and a number of passengers injured. There were several attacks by strikers and sympathizers on surface cars today. Twenty men have been arrested, and the disturbance is the most serious since the inception of the strike. Mayor Mitchell arranged for a conference with Mr. Shonts, president of the Interborough, this afternoon, but little hope is entertained that a settlement can be reached through the conferences.

BATTLE FLAGS ARE RETURNED

Deeply Impressive Ceremonies Mark Return of Tattered Folds By Ex-Confederates.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Newark, Ohio, September 20. — Clasp hands over the faded and tattered folds of the regimental banner of the Seventy-Sixth Regiment, O. V. I., survivors of the First Arkansas Regiment of the Confederacy and the remnant of the Ohio regiment today cemented the ties of friendship between the two sections when the banner captured by the Southern soldiers at Ring Gold, Georgia, November 27, 1863, was returned to Ohio. Nine of the survivors of the Arkansas regiment which captured the banner were in the party. Governor Frank B. Willis, Governor-elect C. H. Brough, of Arkansas, Hon. Edward Kibler, of Newark and Hon. M. E. Dunaway, of Arkansas, were the speakers.

ATTENTION TO POLITICS

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Long Branch, N. J., September 20. — President Wilson and Vance McCormick Democratic National Chairman, mapped out here today a program for meeting the campaign attacks of Charles E. Hughes on the railroad eight-hour law. Asserting that the Democrats would show that the President planned before Congress a complete program to meet the recently threatened railway strike, Mr. McCormick stated that Mr. Wilson is prepared to urge strongly during the next session of Congress the enactment of this program. When the entire plan of the President is fully understood, the people of the country will join in praising Mr. Wilson, the Chairman said. The Republicans, he declared, seem to ignore everything in the program except the one item passed by Congress. He added that it would be shown clearly how Mr. Wilson plans to minimize the possibility of a repetition of the railway situation which arose recently. The Chairman was not ready to announce any additional speaking engagements for Mr. Wilson today.

All Possible Available Men Are Being Hurled Against Roumania.

Herculean Effort Also Made to Check Russian Advance on Lemberg.

(Associated Press Cable.)

LONDON, SEPTEMBER 20. — FIGHTING ON A HUGE SCALE IS IN PROGRESS ALONG THE EASTERN FRONT

The Central powers are concentrating large forces against the Roumanians, notably at Dobrudja, and putting all possible available men in the field to stop the Russian march on Lemberg and the menacing drive of the Russians and Roumanians in the Carpathians and Transylvania.

Both Berlin and Sofia report the development of a great battle on the line the Russians and Roumanians have taken up in Dobrudja.

The engagement, Berlin declares, is turning in favor of the forces of the Central Powers.

Petrograd today reports merely that there have been no important happenings.

TURKS SUCCESSFUL

Turkish troops have been successful in the recent fighting in Galicia, Constantinople announces today.

A forty-eight hour battle with superior Russian forces resulted in the Turks' completely maintaining their position.

In Macedonia, the trend of the campaign seems to favor the Entente forces.

The Serbians are reported in a continued advance along the western end of the line, driving the remaining Bulgarians out of Florina and capturing the highest peak in the Kaimakalea Range, north of Lake Ostrovo.

Sofia, however, denies the success claimed for the Serbians in this region.

Greece is reported to have sent an ultimatum to Germany, answerable tonight, demanding the return of the Greek troops taken at Kavala by the Bulgarians and sent to Germany for internment.

QUIET AT SOMME

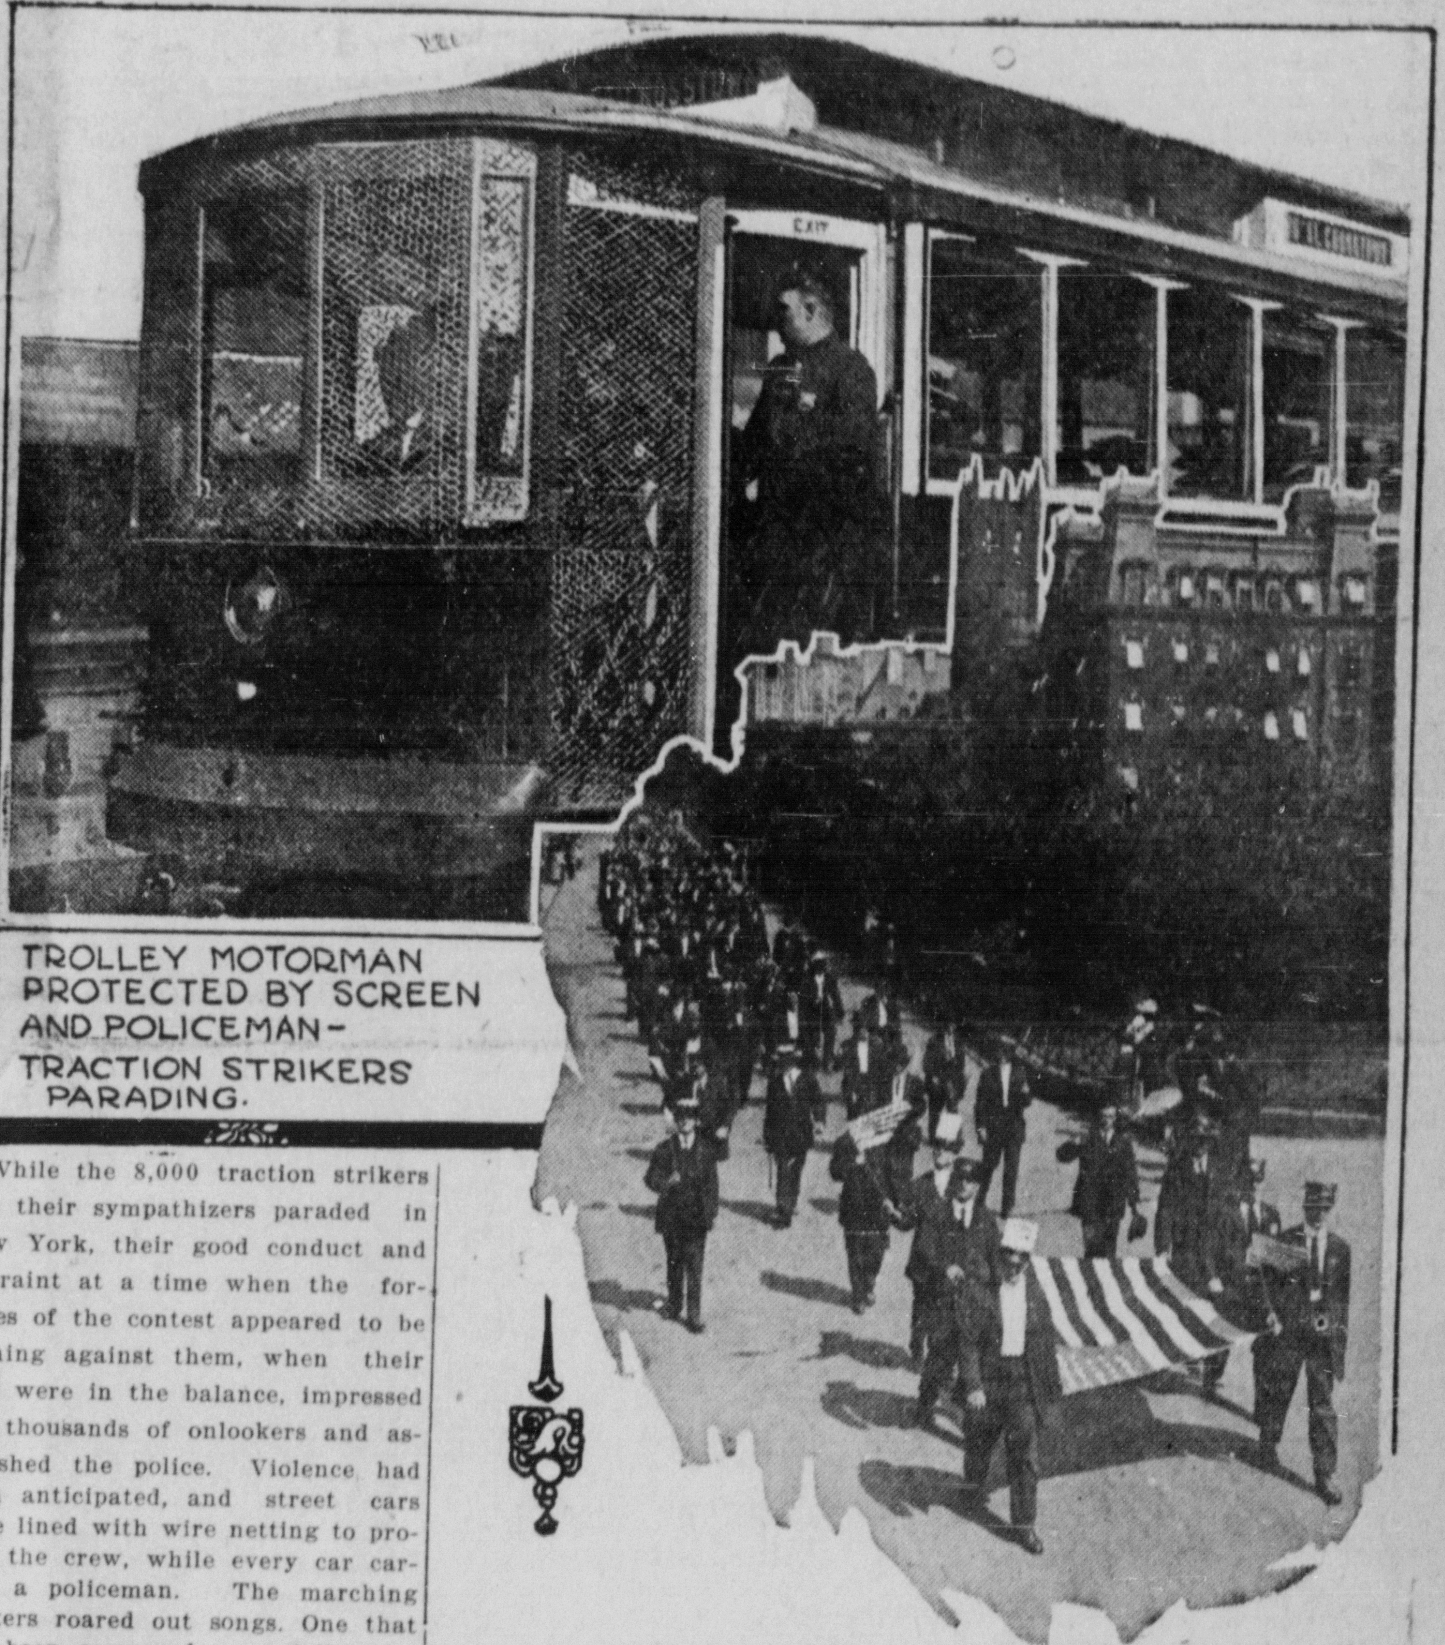

Comparative quiet prevails in the Somme region. Paris reports a German attack north of the Somme River, which was repulsed.

On the British section the Germans have also been attacking, but have failed to regain any of their lost ground, London asserts.

Further north, the British troops raided and cleared a German trench 200 yards in length south of Arras. Berlin reports through the Overseas News Agency an estimate that the British and French losses to date in the battle of the Somme total about 500,000 men, 350,000 of whom are declared to have been English.

Athens reports say the Bulgarians have hastily evacuated Viglitsa, toward the western end of the Macedonian front, falling back on Svesda.

HEMMED IN BY SCREENS WITH POLICE NEAR, "LOYALTY MEN" WORK WHILE STRIKERS MARCH

TROLLEY MOTORMAN PROTECTED BY SCREEN AND POLICEMAN—TRACTION STRIKERS PARADING.

While the 8,000 traction strikers and their sympathizers paraded in New York, their good conduct and restraint at a time when the fortunes of the contest appeared to be turning against them, when their jobs were in the balance, impressed the thousands of onlookers and astonished the police. Violence had been anticipated, and street cars were lined with wire netting to protect the crew, while every car carried a policeman. The marching strikers roared out songs. One that had been composed especially for the occasion was sung to the tune of "I Was Seeing Nellie Home," the chorus of which ran: "We are burying Hedley's bones. We are burying Hedley's bones. This is old Hedley's funeral party."

For we're burying Hedley's bones." The marchers carried hundreds of banners and transparencies. A few of the legends displayed will give a notion of the point of view of the strikers: "Investigate Our Records. We Are

All New Yorkers." "Look Over This Parade and Notice the Aliens." "Shonts Says the Union Is Crushed. Now Laugh." "Shonts Says the Public Pays—of Course."

FUNSTON OBSERVES TACTICS

American Commander Believes Bandit Will Cut Carranza Line From Juarez.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

San Antonio, Texas, September 20. — Belief that Villa will soon cut the Carranza line of communication between Chihuahua City and Juarez, if he has not already done so, was suggested by Major General Funston today after he had read a report of Villa's Chihuahua engagement, received from Brigadier General Bell, at El Paso.

Stories gathered by General Bell indicate that General Trevino's forces were driven out of Chihuahua City in Villa's Saturday attack, and that they took station on a large hill outside the city—from necessity and not from choice, as previous reports said.

From this hill they succeeded, by the use of artillery, in dislodging the Villa forces. General Funston refused to give out details of the Bell report, but said it confirmed previous accounts of the battle and indicated even more serious conditions than were admitted by the Carranza forces.

General Bell's report said that Villa's force was estimated at from 500 to 700 men.

General Funston believes the force has been augmented since.

CLAIM CHIHUAHUA CAPTURED BY VILLA

By Associated Press Dispatch.
El Paso, Texas, September 20. — Rumors were current here today that Villa captured Chihuahua City in a second attack last night.

General Francisco Gonzales, commandant at Juarez, and Consul Garcia declared the rumors were without foundation, and said they had received messages early today which indicated quiet in Chihuahua City.

According to rumor, the attack was preceded by a mutiny of a large part of the garrison.

The bandits are said to occupy the municipal and federal palaces, the penitentiary, and two fortified hills.

U. S. U. ENROLLMENT
SHOWS INCREASE

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., Sept. 20.—Figures now available indicate that the enrollment at the state university will this year show a material gain over last year and will show that the school is still a growing institution. Lester E. Wolfe, secretary of the entrance board, reports that 42 more students had enrolled at the beginning of the present week than had enrolled at the same time last year and that the number this year is 254 more than at the same time four years ago. The Colleges of Arts, Education, Engineering and the Dental College all show increases, despite the fact that the last named was recently made a four year course. Owing to the fact that the new College of Commerce and Journalism and the Law College require preparation in the Arts College, the latter has experienced a large gain in enrollment.

University officials say that never before has the enrollment been so hard to estimate as this year. Owing to the fact that a large number of students are at the border or on their way there and the probability that they will not be mustered out until the middle of October or later, it is doubtful if all of them will return to school this year. There are a number of students with the guard also, who probably would have entered as freshmen this year and these will without doubt remain away from school for another year. Also, many of the students in the guard are self-supporting and as they had, in many instances, to give up profitable employment this summer to attend camp, they were unable to earn enough this summer to come back to school. Mr. Wolfe says that indication for reaching the 6,000 mark at the university this year are not favorable but that no serious falling off in registration is feared.

The Base Ball Race

The base ball season of nineteen sixteen is nearing the end and the race for the pennant in both of the major leagues is yet very much in doubt.

There are at least six clubs in the two big leagues which have almost an equal chance to win the coveted bunting.

Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Boston in the old National League, are so closely bunched with only about two weeks more of the season's schedule remaining to be played, that a game won by any one of the three while the other two are losing will change the leadership.

The same situation exists in the other big league, the American. The Boston, Detroit and Chicago teams are only separated by two games.

That's proof of the honesty and earnestness of base ball. If more proof was needed the results of Monday's contests would furnish it.

On that day the occupants of the base ball cellars—Cincinnati in the National League and Philadelphia in the American League—took a game each from the leaders. While Brooklyn was losing to Cincinnati the meek and lowly Athletics were pulling the Detroit Tigers out of first place in the American League race.

It is certain that the National League flag will go east this year, but no one can tell now whether an eastern or western team will seek to hold the world's series pennant for the younger organization.

Prosperity has descended on baseballdom this year, too. Every club in the major organizations is able to show now a balance on the right side of the ledger.

Base ball grows in popularity, apparently, with each passing year. The absolute honesty of the good old game being sufficient to sustain it in popular favor even against the distasteful money grabbing tendency of some of the club owners.

Meat, for Instance

People complain, and with justice too, at the greatly increased price they are compelled to pay for meat.

The higher prices are accounted for, in a measure, by the tremendous increase in the exportation of meat to Europe.

The report recently issued by The National City Bank of New York is enlightening on that subject. It shows that in 1914 this country exported to Europe something like four hundred and fifty-five thousand pounds, and last year we exported one million, one hundred and thirty nine thousand pounds or nearly four times as much as in 1914.

The warring nations of Europe must have meat and they haven't time nor opportunity to raise it, so they are compelled to buy of American packers.

We are charitable enough to believe that the prosperous American packers charge the foreigners more for meat than they charge the consumers at home, but even granting that to be true, the tremendous shipments of meat abroad makes a short supply for the home market and results, in spite of any good intentions of the patriotic packers, in boosting prices in the home market.

The producer—the farmer—gets more for his meat, on the hoof now than he did before the war, but his increase is nothing like the increased price the packers receive, even here at home.

What is true of meat is true of nearly every thing else.

While the price at home does not quite reach the price abroad, yet a shortage at home due to shipments abroad have had the effect of greatly increasing the cost of food stuffs in all lines.

The "Thin Dime."

Right now there is more or less talk going the rounds as to just what real use there is for a dime any way, and many folks are insisting that the American people would be just as well off if the mints would stop coining dimes and the treasury department of the United States make arrangements to retire the little silver ten-cent pieces now in circulation.

The suggestion has been taken seriously and wide publicity has been given to it. Many newspapers have commented editorially on the suggestion and most of those expressing an opinion seem to favor the banishment of the dime.

The first outstanding fact which suggests itself in the discussion is prosperity.

People now days seem to be so prosperous that they are beginning to think of getting rid of the small change. Only the larger pieces of money are useful. That's true, too.

But come to think about it, there isn't a great demand for our old friend, the "thin dime."

Very few articles of food, very few notions or novelties and very few amusements cost a dime.

While there may not be great use for it in our present prosperous condition, yet we should hate to see the little old dime, the smallest silver piece now that the three-cent piece is only history, that the mints coin, retired from circulation.

Somehow to the people of modest means, the little old dime when we feel it in our pockets imparts even yet the comforting knowledge that we have the equivalent of two nickles at least.

Poetry For Today

—IF—

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired of waiting,
Or being lied about don't deal in lies,
Or being hated don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good or talk too wise.

If you can dream and not make dreams your master;
If you can think and not make thought your aim;
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two imposters just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you've given your life to broken,
And stop and build 'em up with worn out tools.

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on the turn of pitch and toss,
And lose and start again at your beginnings,
And never breathe a word about your loss,
If you can force your heart and brain and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you Except the will which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue
Or walk with kings—nor lose the common touch;
If neither foes nor friends can hurt you;
And all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds worth of distance run,
Yours is the earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my Son!

—Rudyard Kipling.

WARDEN THOMAS TALKS TO PROBERS

(By American Press)
Columbus, Sept. 20.—Warden Thomas of the Ohio penitentiary, testifying in his own defense in the prison probe, enumerated the cases of alleged brutality cited by convict witnesses during the last week and declared that in his opinion there was an excessive use of force in only one instance.

The warden named serialum a dozen cases in which he admitted there had been used considerable force. The one exception in which the employed amount of force was excessive, he said, was one in which a convict named Cameron suffered the loss of two teeth in addition to receiving a black eye and a black and bruised shoulder. It was the loss of teeth that should not have happened, the warden explained.

Harris J. Morgan, the convict whose charges of brutality caused the investigation, never was touched with a club or beaten in any manner, the warden asserted. Deputy Warden J. C. Woodward, who preceded Thomas on the stand, testified to the same effect.

NEWSPAPER COMMENT ON DUTCH TREAT CLUB

The following comment on the Dutch Treat Club of this city is an editorial from the Middletown Journal, the editor of which newspaper was very much interested in the organization while here, and was struck with the independence and democratic nature of the club generally:

THEY MEET OFTEN.

Over at Washington C. H., business and professional men are associated under what is known as the Dutch Treat Club. It is an unorganized organization of the best men of the city, and they do things.

The idea had its origin in the serving of an oyster supper by one business man on a wager. Another one soon followed and then these dinners were perpetuated. No membership fee is charged, by-laws and restrictions are not known. The chairman is the sole officer. The men simply meet and eat and talk. They bring friends sometimes, and all guests are compelled to make short speech. This initiates them into the "mysteries" of the club.

"Not only is the plan unique, but it is progressive and practical. Matters of civic interest are discussed. Movements for municipal betterment are here set on foot and an endless amount of good has been accomplished."

"All of this is splendid, but we want especially to call the attention of the men of Middletown to, what to us seems, the one salient fact—the club meets once a week without fail."

"It is not necessary to remind anyone in Middletown that during the year just passed the Business Men's club of Middletown met exactly three times—count 'em—one, two, THREE."

PITCHER MAY DRAW SNUG FIFTY BONES

Word reaching this city from Wilmington gives information of the bustle that is going on in that usually quiet place over the approaching game with Washington, and one report is that the Clintons have just obtained an outside pitcher who is to get fifty plunks for pitching the game in this city Sunday afternoon.

It is also stated that they are endeavoring to strengthen some other weak points by employing high priced men.

HAS BEEN INVITED TO FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. A. E. Rapp, whose picture appears herewith, is the young Dayton minister to whom a call has been extended to become pastor of the First Baptist church of this city.

REV. A. E. RAPP.

Rev. Rapp is an energetic minister of exceptional ability and at the present time is pastor of the Dayton View Baptist church, Dayton.

The call was extended last week, but so far Rev. Rapp has not accepted, although word is expected momentarily.

SUIT IS FILED ASKING FORECLOSURE

The Citizens Bank of Jeffersonville, has filed suit against B. D. Smith and others, of that community asking judgment in the sum of $1,600, with interest on certain promissory notes executed by defendants.

Plaintiffs ask that certain mortgages held by plaintiff against property owned by part of the defendants, be foreclosed and judgment satisfied.

Post and Reid represent plaintiff.

COMPANY M OUT ON BORDER HIKE

Word from a member of Company M, Ohio Infantry, now quartered at El Paso, Texas, states that a 200 mile hike along the border would be started this week, and that the troops are receiving a great deal of most helpful drilling and target practice, as well as field work.

All men were reported in good health and still enjoying the hardy life in a healthful climate. They are not suffering with the heat, and food is plentiful and of a good quality.

The division now encamped at El Paso, when on the march, makes a line fifteen miles in length, and it is this line that will take part in the long march along the border.

Plans have been made to early in October, but these plans are liable to be countermanded at any time and the troops returned home and mustered out.

The experience of the trip and life in camp on the edge of the country has been of inestimable value to the men, and their efficiency has been increased to a surprising degree.

ONLY SIX CASES OF TYPHOID FEVER

At the present time there are six cases of typhoid fever in the city, and at least one of them came in from outside the city. Virtually all are believed to be due to drinking water from shallow, private wells.

So far as known there are nine cases in the city and county, one of them being in Bloomingburg.

Physicians announce that the number in this city is not so large as usual during this period of the year. All patients are doing very well.

When the source of contamination is discovered, it will be eliminated. Health Officer Byron has collected samples of water from suspected wells and forwarded to Columbus for analysis.

The city water, so far as known, is equal in purity to any in the state, and none of the typhoid is traceable to it.

TO REBUILD JOINT COUNTY BRIDGE

The Ross and Highland county commissioners are preparing to rebuild a bridge of 190 foot span over Paint creek at Greenfield, where the structure is in a dangerous condition.

It will be necessary to strengthen the structure and lay a new floor that cannot be torn up by the passing automobiles.

OLD STATION TO BE DISMANTLED

Within a short time the work of dismantling the old B. & O. station building at this point will be under way.

It is the intention of the B. & O. to dispose of the structure to the best bidder, providing a reasonable bid is made for the structure, and it is understood that a local contractor has made an offer on the building which the B. & O. is now considering favorably.

Not only will the old passenger station be dismantled and removed, but the old express office immediately to the north of the new union station, also will be removed so that no obstruction will remain north of the station.

The final work about the station will be completed sometime next month, it is expected.

MAN IS ARRESTED IN SPRINGFIELD

Upon information sent out by Chief D. L. Moore, Homer Recobs, according to information given out Wednesday afternoon, was placed under arrest in Springfield, and will be brought to this city without delay to answer to a charge of burglary filed against him July 19th, by a Mrs. Williams, in the western part of the city.

Recobs left the city soon after the burglary, and has been in hiding since that time, it seems, but a score of postcards sent out by Chief Moore had the desired effect, and the man was placed under arrest Wednesday morning soon after his arrival.

In Social Circles

One of the most delightful and prettiest birthday parties with which any four-year-old youngster ever celebrated was the one given Tuesday afternoon for Tom Gardner Murray by his parents Mr. and Mrs. Tom Murray and grand mother Mrs. Nan Gardner Murray.

Fifty children flocked to the Murray home and the afternoon was crowded with fun and frolic in outdoor games on the lawn.

Each child was fitted out with a green and white cap and the picture as they formed on the veranda and in the yard to have their photographs taken was one of the prettiest imaginable. The cunning little host, his black eyes snapping, mounted on a hobby horse, was the central figure as photographer Brown snapped the children.

The little ones were wild with joy when they were invited indoors for the birthday feast and each one given a plate on which burned brightly four green candles. In the center of the table were two birthday cake with twinkling green tapers and the white and green color scheme was perfectly carried out.

The children had a great time blowing out their candles.

Assisting the hostesses in entertaining them were: Misses Jaunita Deere, Chicago, Daisy Cockerill, Marjorie Klever, Mary Elizabeth Brown, Georgia Bryant.

The young host received many beautiful presents.

The children invited were: Billie Brown, Edgar Barnett, Townsen Baer, Richard Clark, Thomas Craig, Dean Fite, Paul Faegans, Clifton Hazzard, Louis Jamison, Jimmy Ireland, Wilford McLean, Emmitt Backenstee, Charles Robinson, Henry Pearce, Robert Snider, Daniel Wilkins, Alice Elizabeth Ellis, Mary Brown, Louise Renner, Marjorie Klever, Marjorie Penn, Jean Bay, Kathaleen, Penn, Alice Brownell, Elizabeth Fite, Adeline Barger, Martha Coffman, Katherine Mary Junk, Georgia Bryant, Georgia Prue Chapman, Helen Ghandier, Juanita Gerstner, Mary Louise Mark, Florence Mabel Sparks, Dorothy Sparks, Mary Ann Storey, Waldeana Teachner, Glenna Speaks, Judith Ann Jackson, Katherine Collopy, Dorothy Hudson of Tennessee.

The handsome country home of Mr. Alonzo Wilson, south of town, was the scene of a small, but extremely pretty home wedding, Wednesday afternoon at half past two o'clock, when Miss Ruth Wilson became the bride of Rev. Newman Powell, of Chicago.

Twenty-five members of the family and close friends witnessed the impressive ring ceremony performed by the father of the bridegroom, the Rev. R. D. Powell, of Athens.

The bride and bridegroom took their places quite simply before an hymeneal altar of green, while Miss Olive Hillery, a cousin of the bride, played the wedding march.

The pretty bride was very sweet and winsome in her bridal attire. Her gown was an elaborate creation of white georgette crepe, draped over white satin, with crystal bead trimmings, and she carried a beautiful shower bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley. Her going away gown was a tailored suit of Wisteria, with grey hat, gloves and shoes.

After the ceremony an elegant two-course collation was served, the prevailing colors of the wedding, pink and white, introduced.

A beautiful basket of pink roses and greenery graced the bridal table and clusters of pink and white roses were effectively placed throughout the rooms.

Rev. and Mrs. Powell left, amid a shower of good wishes, on the 5:30 B. & O. train for a short trip East before going to their future home in Chicago, where Rev. Powell is pastor of the Melrose Park church.

The marriage is the sequence of a college romance begun at Ohio University, Athens, where both young people were members of the class of 1915. The bride was called home by the death of her mother a few months before the completion of her course and expects to finish her work and take her degree this winter at the Northwestern University in Chicago.

She is a girl of fine mind and lovely character and will be greatly missed from the home as well as by many warm friends in town and county.

The only guests from a distance at the wedding were the parents of the bridegroom, Rev. and Mrs. R. D. Powell of Athens, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Powell, of Dayton, and Miss Della Steepe of Yonkers, N. Y., a school friend of the bride.

Rev. and Mrs. Powell will be at home at 813 Foster street, Evanston, Ill., after October first.

Mrs. Josephine Kerr pleasantly entertained the Clonians and Junior Clonians Tuesday afternoon, her guests including Mrs. Robert Howat and daughter Miss Jean; Mrs. Frank M. Fullerton and daughter Miss Margaret of Columbus; Miss Rose McLean, Miss Emma McDonald, Miss Elizabeth Johnson, Miss Emily Tanzey.

Miss Fullerton favored the club members with a talk on "The Modern Drama."

Miss Fullerton is always an interesting talker and her intimate knowledge of her subject, much of it gained during her residence in New York gave a delightful personal touch to the talk.

Mrs. Kerr served dainty refreshments late in the afternoon.

W. R. C. MEETING.

The Woman's Relief Corps will be entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. Virginia Willis, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Scott Hopkins.

CAPTURE MEN AND GUNS

Victories Recorded For the Teutonic
Allies Over Enemy Forces in Rou-mania, Galicia and Russia—Artillery Engagements Raging On Western Fronts—Austrians About to Evacuate Trieste.

London, Sept. 20.—A dispatch from Athens states that the Austrians are preparing for the evacuation of Trieste.

London, Sept. 20.—Dispatches state that terrific engagements are in progress on the eastern front in Russia, Galicia, Transylvania and Roumania,
and on the southern front in Macedonia.

Along the Stokhod river in Russia
the Germans and Austro-Hungarians have taken the offensive against the Russians and, according to Berlin,
near Zarece, have crossed the river in pursuit of their retreating foe and have captured 31 officers and 2,511 men and 17 machine guns. Here four lines of Russian trenches were penetrated by the Teutonic allies.

In Galicia a counter attack by the forces of the central powers along the Narayuvka river, southeast of Lemberg, brought a further success to their arms and resulted in the capture of an additional 4,200 men.

In the Ludowa region of the Carpathians, the Russians have gained some new positions in the fighting
among the snowclad peaks.

The war chancelleries at Berlin, Sofia and Vienna record victories for the Teutonic allies over the Roumanians in Transylvania and Dobruja.
In southern Transylvania, near Hatszeg, according to Berlin, the invading Roumanians have been repulsed
and are being pursued by the Austro-Germans, while in Dobruja the new line formed by the Russians south of the Constant railway and running from the Black sea to the Danube has been penetrated at some points and several villages captured.

In Macedonia, hard fighting continues at various points. Two counter attacks by the Bulgarians against the Serbians on the left wing were unsuccessful, according to Paris, while Serbia reports that attacks by Russians,
French and Serbian troops on Bulgarian positions around Florina were repulsed, as likewise was an offensive west of Lake Ostrovo.

In France and Belgium there has been violent artillery activity on the Somme and Verdun fronts and around Dixmude. A local German attack on British trenches east of Martinpuah,
north of the Somme, was repulsed.
Berlin admits the relinquishment to the entente forces of trenches east of Ginchy and near Combles, which had been previously demolished by the entente artillery.

A dispatch from Athens states that the Austrians are preparing for the evacuation of Trieste.

HITTING TARGET AT 20,000 YARDS IS FEAT OF DREADNAUGHT'S BIG GUN

Hitting a target at 20,000 yards with fourteen inch guns probably will put our navy above all others.
That's what the dreadnaughts Pennsylvania and Oklahoma did in Chesapeake bay. The target was the hulk of the San Marcos, formerly the battleship Texas. No. 1, Pennsylvania; No. 2, Oklahoma's fourteen inch guns; No. 3, turret of San Marcos pierced by shell.

EFFORTS TO SETTLE ARE FUTILE

New York, Sept. 20.—It was announced, after a citizens' committee had failed to effect a basis of settlement between the striking union car men and employers, that the only hope of averting a threatened sympathetic walkout of 700,000 workers set for Friday now lies in a final appeal to be made to the labor leaders tomorrow.

The citizens' committee probably will confer with Mayor Mitchell and Oscar S. Straus, chairman of the public service commission, in an effort to find some solution of the problem.

After a conference with the mayor and Mr. Straus the committee visited Theodore P. Shonts, president of the Interborough Rapid Transit company and New York Railways company and,
it was said, proposed to him a plan evolved for the peaceable adjustment of the present differences. Mr. Shonts, it was learned, informed the committee that he would refuse positively to meet representatives of the strikers.
He said that even if he were disposed to treat with the strikers, he could not do so, because the 11,000 loyal employees of his companies, who made possible the continuation of traffic on the subways and elevated roads, had threatened to strike if the Interborough recognized the strikers' union.

Ernest Bohm, secretary of the Central Federated Union, says that communications have been received from
"three big unorganized groups of employees in three great industries, asking permission to join the strike."

William B. Fitzgerald, union organizer, addressed a meeting of striking car men. "The general strike is rolling along in full glory," he said. "If the mayor and the public service commission do not settle things by Thursday night, they will find other things to entertain the police besides 11,000
striking car men."

Serious rioting occurred in various sections of Manhattan, when attempts were made to run cars on the Forty-second and Fifty-ninth street crosstown surface lines. Mobs of strikers and their sympathizers stormed two car barns, overpowering the police and putting to flight all railway employees in the vicinities. Several motormen and conductors who had not joined the strikers were beaten. Much property damage had been done before police arrived.

"NEW DEAL"

(By American Press)

Columbus, Sept. 20.—Reorganization of the Ohio Public Health Federation was effected at the annual meeting here of its executive council. By acceptance into membership of the Ohio Hospital association and the Ohio Association of Graduate Nurses, the membership of the federation was raised to 11,000.

Plans were completed for establishment in Columbus of state headquarters, through which the membership will be kept in touch during the next winter with details of all proposed legislation that in any way affect public health. The headquarters will be in charge of G. V. Sheridan, executive secretary of the Ohio State Medical association, who was elected secretary of the reorganized federation.
At the November meeting, a president and three vice presidents will be elected.

The executive council, which is the governing body of the organization, organized with the election of Dr. W.
B. Carpenter, Homeopathic Medical Society of Ohio, as chairman.

DOUBLE KILLING

(By American Press)

Canton, O., Sept. 20.—Following a quarrel over an unknown cause, Isaac Wheeler, fifty-eight, prominent Canton real estate dealer, shot and killed his wife Anna and then committed suicide.

The woman, following the quarrel, tried to escape, and jumped out of the second story window, a distance of 20 feet. She was followed by her husband, who opened fire as she tried to get up and flee. Two bullets entered her chest. When Wheeler thought his wife was dead he turned the gun on himself, two bullets entering his chest. The woman died instantly while the husband died immediately upon reaching a hospital.

The Wheelers are survived by twelve children. They came to Canton about a year ago from Dennison, O. It was learned that a petition in divorce had been filed recently by the woman.

SHOT IN HEART

(By American Press)

Akron, O., Sept. 20.—The police have another mystery to solve in the finding of the body of Stefano Spatoro beside a barn in which he kept his horse. The man had been shot three times, once through the heart. There is no clue to the murder.

EXCHANGE PULPITS

thony, assistant to Our Lady of Consolation church at Carey, and Father Phillip of Utica, N. Y., have changed pulpits, the arrangement being just announced.

WILSON NOT TO TAKE STUMP

McCormick Not Alarmed Over
the Political Outlook.

Long Branch, N. J., Sept. 20.—President Wilson announced that he has no intention of making any campaign tour, but that he will carry out plans already tentatively made for several speeches on public questions before nonpartisan organizations. This announcement followed a conference between Mr. Wilson and Vance McCormick, chairman of the Democratic national committee.

Both the president and Mr. McCormick expressed indignation over stories printed to the effect that as a result of uneasiness over the Republican campaign Mr. Wilson had changed his plans and will stump the country.

Chairman Vance McCormick dismissed with the president invitations received from many parts of the country urging Mr. Wilson to make speeches. It was understood that some of his speeches will be in Illinois, Indiana, Missouri and New York.

When asked whether the president would go as far west as the Pacific coast, Mr. McCormick replied: "Hardly that far."

The president also plans to make addresses on the porch of Shadow Lawn to delegations from various states, who will call upon him. The first of these speeches will be made Saturday afternoon to a delegation of business men. Among other things, the president will discuss the Adamson act.

The president displayed his interest in his campaign. From now on, administration officials said, the Democrats will push the campaign as vigorously as possible. Plans are already being made for sending several cabinet members into the middle west and all doubtful states.

Mr. McCormick denied emphatically reports that Democratic leaders were alarmed over the political situation.
He said that during his middle western trip he found strong Democratic sentiment.

NEW AIR RECORD

(By American Press)

Turin, Sept. 20.—The Italian airman Antonacci has just beaten the world's height record near here. He carried six passengers and rose to a height of 19,260 feet. The previous record, with the same number of passengers, was recently achieved in France by Poire,
but the height reached was only 9,000 feet. Antonacci used an Italian army biplane.

Progressiveness Is Slow To Innoculate. It Requires Time For The Average Person To Think, So Says Dr. Fred- erick Blankner, The Specialist.

During the past few weeks Dr.
Frederick Blankner has been talked about and many opinions have been ventured. He has been classified all the way from a fakir to a first class doctor. One of his patients who called today to make a social visit and to report concerning his case said: Doctor I am going to be honest with you as you have been with me, and tell you that when I first came to see you that I had but little faith in you,
but I wanted to see just what you had to say about my case. I confess that you explained my condition better than I could have told you, therefore I concluded to take your treatment and I want to say to you now that I have found every thing to act just as you said. It would and I now know that you are master of your line of work. Of course you know that many men claim to do things that they can't do but where there is so much chaff there is always to be found the grain of efficiency and I can see now why it is that you can travel for your services are valuable to the afflicted.
Concerning your painless tooth extraction I want to say that I never heard so many people speak in such uniformity of a man's professional work in my life. Why, every one that I meet that has had out teeth declare that you have no equal and that the results of your work is really more than we have ever been used to and that is why the people appreciate your coming to Washington.

Yes, it is true that the longer Dr. Blankner remains in a place the longer the people want him to remain. Why in Cambridge, Ohio, when Dr. Blankner was there one citizen offered to give him office rent free for one year if he would locate there for he said this community needs just such a doctor as you are. The only way you can ever find out what Dr. Blankner can or can't do for you is to make the little journey until Saturday, September 23, and if afflicted in any way well will it pay you to do so. Office hours 9 a. m. to 8 p. m.

SUNKEN TREASURE

(By American Press)

Durban, Sept. 20.—Another attempt is being made to solve the mystery of the late Boer President Kruger's gold, which is supposed to have been shipped in the small sailing vessel Dorothea from Delagoa bay in 1897. This is the seventh expedition in search of the vessel, which was wrecked at Cape Vidal, on the coast of Zululand.
She carried bullion to the value of $5,000,000 which, it is alleged, was stowed in cement. The present searchers' plan is to construct a caisson which will enable them to penetrate the accumulation of sand and ascertain definitely whether the treasure exists. The wreck lies at a lonely spot on a heavily weather-beaten coast.

Growing Girls and Boys

Every physical or mental act that is performed uses up millions upon millions of red corpuscles of the blood. The demand is enormous and continuous. Is it any wonder that the active boy and girl should manifest this need by hunger? Proper food is required so that the system
may form new red corpuscles.

HEMO is a concentrated food made with the idea of supplying many of the elements needed in assisting nature to rebuild old blood cells and to manufacture new ones.
It is so pleasing to the taste, so easy to assimilate, and so well tolerated
by the stomach that a minimum amount of effort by the digestive system is required in converting the food elements into red blood corpuscles.

It is an ideal lunch for the boy or girl, or a pleasing beverage at meal times. Its use will convince you.
Makes a delicious food drink by simply adding water.

GLORIA'S ROMANCE

SYNOPSIS.

Pierpont Stafford, banker and railroad magnate, with his sixteen-year-old daughter, Gloria, is wintering at Palm Beach. Gloria is a vivacious but willful young lady who chafes under the restraining hand of a governess from whom she repeatedly escapes. Her childish capers cause young Doctor Royce to fall in love with her. She steals from her room at night and in an auto plunges into the surf where she leaves the car. Becoming lost in the everglades she falls into the hands of the Seminole Indians. She is rescued and returned to her father who had offered a reward for her return. Gloria falls in love with her rescuer, Freneau. Five years later she leaves school and meets Freneau at the theater; his attention having been occupied with her sister-in-law he has forgotten Gloria. Gloria feels that her one dream is shattered. Later Freneau persuades her to forgive him. Gloria's sister-in-law, Lois, becomes intensely jealous and Doctor Royce discovers in her an ally to assist in thwarting Freneau. Doctor Royce warns Freneau that there is another woman besides Gloria. Freneau goes sleighing with Gloria without her father's knowledge. It results in pneumonia for Gloria, whose family becomes incensed at Freneau when they learn the truth. Royce is summoned to alleviate Gloria's suffering. Freneau's finances being low he approaches Pierpont Stafford for a loan. Doctor Royce again warns Freneau of his conduct. But Lois, learning of Freneau's betrothal to Gloria, threatens him with dire punishment. Her husband, Gloria's brother David, becomes suspicious; he plans a trap for his wife. Freneau driven to desperation by Lois' threats agrees to spend a week with her in the Catskills. He plans to have Mulry send Gloria a bunch of telegrams. Lois' husband threatens to kill a man. After Freneau takes leave of Gloria she sees from her window an attack made upon him when he goes to meet Lois.

"I thought you were on your way South," Lois exclaimed as she embraced him with apparent fervor.

"I decided not to go and turned back. Are you sorry?" he asked hungrily.

She answered: "My love!" and clasped him close.

She was afraid to ask him any questions lest he ask questions of her.

The following morning Gloria, still see-sawing between joy and anguish, received a telegram from Freneau at Buffalo. She telegraphed to him at his address there. Later the message was reported undelivered. Yet in due time a letter came from Freneau on the hotel paper.

The next day a message of love from Cleveland. Now she called the hotel on the long-distance telephone. The clerk insisted that Freneau was not there and had not been there.

It was the same with messages from Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis, and Pittsburgh. Gloria felt that she was being slowly driven insane. But her bodily health improved throughout the week in spite of her mental distress and Doctor Royce told her that she might go down to the dining room for her breakfast. She was glad of this because Dick's letter from Pittsburgh had promised that he would call on her that morning. She wanted to welcome him in state.

She herself had a royal reception from the servants. She was dressed in a trailing breakfast gown of orchid chiffon, and she bent to the bowing old butler as if he were her prime minister. Her father escorted her to her place, then whipped open his paper to the financial page and vanished behind it.

Gloria turned to the page of social gossip in another paper. She had pretty well lost track of the world. She laughed as she turned to the front page and only now saw the big headlines announcing: "Freneau Dead. Body of Well-Known Clubman Found in Lowe Bay. Mystery as to Death. Suicide Hinted. Financial Affairs Known to Have Been in Disorder."

Gloria's eyes widened. Her fingers clenched and crumpled the paper in anguish. Her father, looking up from his paper, saw the wild terror in her eyes. He hurried to her. She handed him the paper, and while he read, she rose to her feet unsteadily, leaning on the table for support.

As soon as her father understood the news he put his arms about her. But she gently thrust him from her and stood gazing great-eyed into space. She was seeing again what she saw that night beneath the monument. All her girlhood seemed to drop from her. Her small figure grew terrible with agony, her little white mouth was drawn with determination to have revenge.

She lifted her hands to heaven in solemn consecration and made her vow:

"I will not rest until I discover the murderer of Richard Freneau and bring him to justice."

Then, waving her father aside, she marched out into the hall and up the great staircase like a young queen going to the guillotine.

New York, Sept. 20.—New York brought its winning streak to fourteen straight victories here by winning a double header from Pittsburgh, and are now only three games short of the season's record that they made in the spring. The Giants had little trouble in hitting Pittsburgh's young pitchers. Kauff made a home run in each game.

ADAMSON ACT HIT BY HUGHES

Nominee Claims It Was a Surrender to Force.

SPEAKS AT SPRINGFIELD

Declares That the Reasons Given For the Passage of the Measure Are Futile, and That the Act Does Not Provide For an Eight Hour Law—President Wilson Goes Over His Campaign Plans.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 20.—Addressing a large audience in the Arsenal here, Charles E. Hughes, Republican nominee for president, renewed his attack on the administration for the passage of the Adamson law in the face of the threatened railroad strike. Mr. Hughes discussed and called "futile" reasons advocated for its passage, quoted from President Wilson's address to congress on the subject, challenged the statement of Representative Adamson that it was passed to meet an emergency, and cited a declaration attributed to Grover Cleveland in support of the contention that the law was "a surrender to force."

Mr. Hughes also touched on the protection of American rights. He said: "The America of which I have a vision, the America of the future, is an America maintaining American rights on land and sea, without fear or favor, throughout the world."

Mr. Hughes, after declaring that "the just interests of labor are the concern of all," and asserting that he desired to see safe and wholesome conditions of work, adequate opportunities for education and recreation, reasonable hours of labor and fair wages, said: "The Adamson bill is a force bill. It was legislation without inquiry, without knowledge. The demand by the administration for such legislation as the price of peace was a humiliating spectacle. It was not only a serious misuse of official power, but a deplorable abdication of moral authority. The Adamson bill does not provide for an eight hour day. It provides for an increase in wages for certain men. They may work just as long as before. They may work ten hours or more. If it was proposed to give an eight hour work day, why were not work for longer hours and all contracts for longer service prohibited under penalty, save where emergencies exist?"

WOMAN IS FINED $5 AND THE COSTS

Mag Wyatt, picked up in a badly intoxicated condition, Tuesday morning, was escorted before Mayor Oster Wednesday and there fined $5 and the costs, a total of $10.35 for her offense.

The woman paid the fine and was released. She carried with her, when arrested, an order for four quarts of whiskey, and was looking for an express office at the time she was pinched.

FROSTS RIPEN THE FAYETTE CORN CROP

Farmers state that the recent frosts have done much toward ripening the corn crop in this county, and as a result there is a general scramble to get the corn in the shock before it is further damaged by frost, and while it is in good condition to handle.

Generally the frost has not damaged the crop, but in some instances the freeze was very apparent in the fields which had not matured.

WINNERS NOT YET CERTAIN

Contest for Republican Nomination for Senator in New York Primary.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

New York, September 20.—Incomplete returns from yesterday's primary election in New York state failed to decide the fight for the Republican nomination for United States Senator between Robert Bacon, former Ambassador to France, and William Calder, Brooklyn, a former member of Congress.

With 1272 districts missing out of 5719 districts, Calder has 116,401 votes, and Bacon 112,129.

In the race for governor on the Republican ticket, Governor Whitman polled more than 180,000 votes to his opponent's 32,000.

There was no opposition on the Democratic ticket for governor, Samuel Seabury being the only candidate on the Democratic ticket.

For United States Senator, with 1,429 districts missing, McCombs received 77,172 to Conway's 38,372.

On the progressive ticket for governor, with 1,734 districts missing, Governor Whitman polled 9,430 and Seabury 6,389.

Republican leaders attach great significance to the Progressive vote, declaring that Whitman's victory in the Progressive primary proves that the Republicans will receive the bulk of the Progressive vote in the fall election.

Columbus Woman Comes Forward With Something New in Divorce Causes.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, Ohio, September 20.—After testifying that her husband kept pigs and chickens in their home, and that he would not let her sweep the house because she would wear out the broom, Mrs. Mary Rolison, of Licking county, was granted a divorce today from her husband, Alva A. Rolison, said to be a wealthy farmer.

Mrs. Rolison testified that after her marriage, November 30 last, she went to her husband's home and found the five room house arranged in this manner:

One room for the pigs; one for the chickens; one for the automobile; one room for a kitchen, and another a bedroom.

The wife testified that her husband would not permit her to use soap "because it cost money." And she said that he would not take her to church on Sunday in the automobile, because the gasoline for the machine would cost money.

NEW LOCAL FREIGHT ON B. & O. RAILROAD

A new local freight was added to the shipping facilities of the B. & O. railroad, Wednesday morning, to make daily trips between Midland City and this city.

The new freight picks up all cars at Midland City and points between that point and this city, which are bound for the east, and brings them to this city.

Returning the train picks up all west bound cars and leaves them at Midland City.

This arrangement is expected to relieve the difficulty which for some time has been experienced in speedy handling of freight by the trains previously operated.

NOW POST LEDGERS BY NEW MACHINE

One of the first ledger posting machines to be installed in this part of the state has been added to the office facilities of the Dahl-Campbell Branch and the ledger system has been changed accordingly from the old style to the new loose-leaf and all ledger work done by machinery. The debits and credits are handled with one operation, and at the close of each day the books stand perfectly balanced instead of balancing once each month.

By this method it is only a moment's work to see how much a customer owes. Trip purchases also are carried out with the other work of the machine.

These machines are electrically driven, save much valuable time and above all are accurate.
